

STATE OF OHIO POLICE VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE APRIL 13, 2010

DoubleTree Hotel Columbus/Worthington, Columbus, OH

Join Police Officers and Police Volunteers from throughout the state at the First Annual Ohio Police Volunteer Conference.

Whether you are the Chief of Police, line officer, dedicated volunteer or city administrator, this program is for you!

The program begins with State Representative Denise Driehaus speaking on enhancing laws protecting citizens who volunteer for police departments throughout the state.

Presenters from Tri-State RCPI and several police agencies with over 1,000 citizen volunteers in their programs will cover topics including:

- Building Program Infrastructure
- Volunteers Role in Homeland Security
- Fundraising for Volunteer Programs and Citizens Police Academy Alumni Associations
- How to Start and Build a Volunteer Program
- Innovative Classes to Enhance Your Program
- Program Organization and Resources
- Recognition of Volunteers
- Recruitment
- Selection and Management of Volunteers
- The Future of Police Volunteer Programs in Ohio
- State of the Art Training Programs
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Supporting your Police Department Utilizing Volunteers
- Ways to Increase the Growth of Your Volunteer Program

The day will conclude with a Panel Discussion and Open Roundtable where all in attendance can participate and share ideas. All in attendance will receive a certificate of attendance.

The registration fee of $85.00 includes a yearly membership in the Ohio Crime Prevention Association and Membership on the Volunteers in Policing Committee.
