

Building a Threat Assessment

Whether a school, business, or faith based organization, how a survey of the premises can be completed and give recommendations to minimize active threats that may occur in/around the premises. Focus is on access control, both externally and internally, escape routes, secured spaces for lockdown and barricading, and training needs for employees.

Lee Colegrove
Sergeant
Strongsville Police Department

Lee has served Strongsville Police Department for 29 years in various positions, including, patrol, detective, detective sergeant, and road supervisor. Also head up the departments crime prevention division. Member of OCPA and CPS since 2012.